ALL PROBED AT ONCE

Brennan's Request for Separate Hearings Refused.

FERNALD CHARGES INCLUDED

Attorneys for Complainant Objected to Subordination of the Formal Allegations of Favoritism to an Investigation of Conduct of Public Official in Engineer Department.

The District Commissioners will probe the allegations of corruption against Charles Fernald, formerly of the engineer department, at the same time as the formal charges of favoritism filed by the Brennan Construction Company are considered. This decision is a refusal to consider the request of the complainants that the formal charges be not subordinated to an investigation of the conduct of Fernald.

Attorneys Douglas and Baker defined the case of the Brennan Construction Company against the engineer department of the District in these words:

Request of Complainant.

"We desire to state that the point of inquiry in the present hearing, as shown by the formal charges filed, is whether or not favoritism has been shown to the Cranford Paving Company in the award of the contract of March 20, 1907, and subsequently of a large amount of new work without advertisement or competition.

"Our clients have not filed any charges involving the general conduct of Charles Fernald while connected with the District government. All the testimony at our disposal, proving or tending to prove Mr. Fernald's connection with the award of the said contract and new work, has been introduced already, and, as stated, is considered by us as merely incidental to the main charges of favoritism.

Fear Clouding of Issues.

"We must, therefore, strenuously urge," attorneys for the Brennan Company state in the letter they wrote to the Commissioners yesterday, "that the questions involved in the charges filed only be considered in the hearing now in progress, and that those issues be not confused, clouded, or sidetracked by an investigation of the general conduct of Mr. Fernald while an official of the District of Columbia."

A list of names of witnesses the attorneys for the Brennan Company wish subpoenaed has been received by the Commissioners. Attorneys Douglas and Baker in their letter to the Commissioners yesterday, state they "do not request that these witnesses be summoned to appear at the hearing set for Friday, May 15," meaning they would rather have them called in at some later hearing, in order that the charges of favoritism shall not be set aside for investigation of the conduct of Mr. Fernald.

Ready to Substantiate Allegations.

"Should the Commissioners, themselves, or the district attorney determine upon an investigation of Mr. Fernald's conduct," the letter concludes, "our clients stand ready, as law-abiding citizens and taxpayers, to render such aid as may lie in their power; but, as already stated, we must earnestly request that such investigation, if had, shall be entirely separate from the investigation now in progress."

The list of witnesses as forwarded by the Brennan Company's attorneys is Joseph H. Bradley, Warren P. Brenner, W. S. Strouse, Charles McDermott, Fred
S. Smith, Percy Cranford, Joseph H.
Cranford, P. J. Brennan, Charles E. Stewart, Harold Davis, Edward B. Johnson, H. J. Beall, from Truman L. Willing, and Edward L. Hillier.

Attitude of Commissioners.

In reply, a letter was sent by the Commissioners to the attorneys for the Brennan company, in conformance with the following action of the board:

"We move the writers be advised that in view of the testimony submitted by them at the first session of this hearing, held on May 12, the Commissioners are of opinion that matters referred to in their letter cannot be segregated as they suggest, and that they be further informed that the Commissioners will continue the hearing, as already arranged, at 10 o'clock Friday morning, to be adjourning at or before 1 o'clock on that date, until 10 o'clock on Saturday morning following, at which time the witnesses named in the list furnished by them will be served with subpoenas to appear before the Commissioners at the latter date, and in addition thereto a subpoena will be served on Charles Fernald.

"Further, that they be requested to be prepared on the morning of Saturday, the 16th inst., to provide the Commissioners with all the information at their disposal looking to the substantiation of the allegations made by Charles A.
Douglas, at the hearing of May 12, where he stated 'publicly and deliberately, that if this Board of Commissioners have authority and power to summon witnesses, and will summon witnesses, whose names we will furnish, we will undertake to establish, positively and distinctly, corruption on the part of Mr. Fernald, influencing his conduct in the discharge of public duties.'"

ARGUMENT OVER LETTERS.

Anonymous Communications Figure in Land Trial.

Practically all of yesterday's session in the trial of Frederick A. Hyde, John A. Benson, Henry A. Diamond, and Joost H. Schneider for alleged conspiracy to defraud the government of public lands was devoted to an argument over the admissibility of certain anonymous letters alleged by the government to have been written by Diamond.

J. P. Shearman, an expert in handwriting and typewriting, testified that, in his opinion, the letters were written by Diamond, and he brought to the stand with him enlarged reproductions of portions of one of the letters which, he said, showed peculiarities of Diamond.

ania Railroad freight offices, Four-and-a-half and E streets southwest, when the Washington branch of the Association of Railway and Steamship Companies held its first meeting.

sided. Officers were elected as follows:
W. W. Bowie, president; E. B. Bowling, Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, vice president; C. C. Swartz, Balti-mittee, Joseph P. Stephenson, chairman; C.

W. Wattle, G. O. Carpenter, T. M.
Raney, and E. C. Joyce.

At a meeting of the executive committee it was decided that meetings would be held every month. The organization branch is a new organization, having been organized but a few weeks.

CHASE WINS DAMAGE SUIT.

Navy Yard Mechanic Wanted Money for Being Ejected.

A verdict in favor of P. B. Chase, of Chase's Theater, was returned yesterday by the jury in Circuit Court No. 2, before Justice Anderson, in the suit of Royce A. Nokes, a navy yard mechanic, for $10,000 damages for being ejected from the theater in April, 1905. The trial has been in progress since Monday, and it took the jury six minutes to bring in a verdict. A former trial ended in a disagreement.

During a performance of Mlle. Abbott, the "Georgia Magnet," Nokes, with others, was invited on the stage. Mlle.
Abbott is alleged to have such magnetic power that strong men are unable to move objects which she grasps. Nokes was ejected from the theater by employees when Mlle. Abbott complained that Nokes had treated her roughly.

SUES FOR DISPUTED CLAIM.

Attorney Thomas Wants Money for Alleged Legal Services.

Henry G. Thomas, attorney, yesterday instituted suit to recover from Mrs.
Florence Hunt De Winter, the sum of $1,974, which, he claims, is due him for legal services in connection with the will of Jennie De Witt Talmage, in which Mrs.
De Winter was named as beneficiary.
Justice Gould signed an order restrain-ing Mrs. De Winter or her husband, Nielas De Winter, from removing from the District or from disposing of the money which she received as the legacy in question, and to show cause on May 22, why receivers should not be appointed to take charge of a portion of the fund equivalent to the amount of Attorney Thomas' claim pending the determination of the suit.

Mr. Thomas, in his bill, states he was engaged by Mrs. De Winter to look out for her interests in a contest over the will and she agreed to give him 15 per cent of the amount received. He states he conducted negotiations in her behalf, and a compromise was effected under which she received $12,164.10, but she has failed to pay him his proportion, which amounts to $1,974.

on June 7, 1895, and on January 6, 1908, her husband abandoned her. Suit for absolute divorce was also filed by Mrs.
Annie E. Callahan from Charles J. Cal-

MINISTER PUT IN CELL

August Davidson Locked Up by the Police.

IS CHARGED WITH FORGERIES

Specific Accusation is that He Signed the Name of Dr. William P.
Carr, Well-known Physician of Washington, to Note for $300—Formerly Occupied Pulpits Here.

August Davidson, fifty years old, college graduate and former Methodist minister, was arrested yesterday evening by Central Office Detectives Weedon and Burlingame on charges of forgery and obtaining money by false pretenses.

It is alleged Davidson forged the name of Dr. William P. Carr, well-known physician, of 1315 L street northwest, to several notes, one of them for $300.
Davidson is well known in Washington, having occupied Methodist pulpits before in Norfolk, Va., with the names of members of the Virginia Methodist Episcopal Conference forged to them.

Occupies a Cell.

The former minister is now in a cell at the First precinct station. He will not be arraigned in Police Court to-day, in order to give Detectives Warren and Mullen a chance to investigate several worthless checks which, it is alleged, he passed in Norfolk, Va., with the names of members of the Virginia Methodist Episcopal Conference forged to them.

The specific charge on which Davidson was arrested was the forging of Dr.
Carr's name to a note. Davidson is said to have tried to get the note cashed at the office of J. M. Kinchloe, a real estate broker. He had known Dr. Carr for years. The physician had once endorsed his note for $300.

Several days ago he made out a note for $300 and presented it to Mr. Kinchloe for payment. The real estate man told him to return to his office yesterday afternoon and get the money. In the meantime he telephoned to Dr. Carr, Davidson's arrest followed.

Two other notes for $12 each, with the name of Dr. Carr to them, are said to have been cashed by Davidson. Two notes for like amounts, also bearing the signature of Dr. Carr, are said to have been cashed in Herndon, Va., where Davidson is well known as a divine.
These notes, the police have three checks. These are signed with the name of William Viscar, conference treasurer, and are indorsed by prominent ministers as elders of the conference. The checks are made out to Rev. R. G. James, 45; Rev. C. H. Fielding, 38, and Rev. E. E.
Harrell, 35. The checks purport to be contributions for home missions, and are drawn on the City Bank and Norfolk National Bank.

Denies the Accusation.

When questioned by Detective Weedon, Davidson denied he had forged notes or other papers. He said he had made out the $300 note and sent it to Dr. Carr with a request that he sign it. The note, he said, was returned to him next day indorsed.

Davidson formerly was well known in Washington, Maryland, and Virginia. He left the city going to Virginia, where he preached in small churches. Recently he returned to Washington and lives at 127 A street northeast.

AMATEURS IN DRAMA.

"The Chimney Corner" Presented Under Auspices of St. Agnes' Guild.

"The Chimney Corner," a little domestic drama, was produced at the parish hall of the Church of the Good Shepherd last night, under the auspices of St. Agnes' Guild.

The play was presented by amateur players from 15 to 25 years of age. A.
Moore as Solomon Probit and Mr. Singleton as Peter Probit. The former was amusing as the absent-minded old gentleman, and the latter almost carried the weight of the play on his shoulders.
They were assisted by Mr. Peters, as John; Mr. Carr, as Chetty; Mr. Yauchler, as the detective; Mrs. Seavers, as Patty, and Miss Armstrong, as Grace.

A large audience enjoyed the performance, after which the young people had a short dancing programme.

Excellent Target Work.

Brig. Gen. Arthur Murray, chief of artillery, has received a report of excellent target work done by the Ninety-first Company of Coast Artillery, at Fort Pickens, Fla., several weeks ago. One hundred per cent was made in two series of practices. In the first the mean range was 5,885 yards at a target moving four and one-half miles an hour, and six hits were made in six shots. In the second practices four hits were made at a range of 5,825 yards at a target moving four and one-half miles an hour.

Dr. McFarland Gives Lecture.

Dr. George B. McFarland spoke at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church last night. Dr. McFarland is director of the Siamese Royal Medical College and Hospital, at Bangkok, Siam, and he talked of the conditions in Siam and the progress of medical science in that country. Dr.
Wallace Radcliffe, pastor of the church, introduced the speaker.

Senator Tillman Improves.

been resting for the last few days at a

BISHOP NEELEY LECTURES.

Discusses Topography and Racial Aspects of South America.

Bishop Neely, in charge of the Methodist mission in Panama and South America, lectured before a large audience at the Hamilton Methodist Episcopal Church, Ninth and P streets northwest, last night.
Appropriate to the visit of the bishop, the church was profusely decorated with the flags of every American republic, the national colors of the United States being predominant.

After describing the vastness of the southern continent by comparing its plains, mountains, and rivers with those of North America, the bishop gave an instructive discourse on the mixed races that compose the population of the South American countries.

Particularly interesting were the remarks made by the speaker upon the various winds that prevail in the South.
The bishop ended his address by saying "Hundreds of thousands of Europeans and Boers are pouring into South America every year. The question arises, what will be the result? Will we have a flourishing as this country?"

GIRLS PRESENT A PLAY.

Chevy Chase College Pupils Give
"The Stoops to Conquer."

A merry company of players from the Chevy Chase College and Seminary de-lightedly entertained their friends and classmates last night with their outdoor production of "The Stoops to Conquer." The bright lights on the lawn, the wind in the trees, and a moon that occasionally broke through the threatening clouds, afforded an appropriate and romantic setting.

Pretty girls, splendidly costumed, stalked about as gallant gentlemen, or mascued as ladylike beauties. All of the parts were well played, and we may the applause accorded them. The cast was as follows: Sir Charles Marlow, Louis Freeman; Young Marlow, Marie Benford; Harcourt, Glenna S. Tinnin; Hastings, Marguerite Holcomb; Tony Lumpkin, Marjorie Davidson; Digory, Anne Thomas; Mrs. Harcourt, Fannie Lee Jackson; Miss Harcourt, Rowena Sizer; Miss Neville, Sadie Kaufman.

CONTRACTOR WANTS DAMAGES.

Demands $70,000 from Reavis, Brenaman, and Keefer, of Washington.

William G. Moore, a contractor, of Philadelphia, yesterday started suit for $70,000 damages from A. S. Reavis, Samuel C. Brennan, and Howard R. Keefer, contractors, of this city.
Moore alleges that on January 14, 1907, he executed a contract with Bridgeman Brook, of Philadelphia, to erect a factory building at Fifteenth street and Washington avenue, in Philadelphia, and that he engaged the contractors to furnish certain columns, beams, girders, etc., for which they were to receive $15,000.
He claims they negligently removed certain supports which caused the building to collapse, and that later he was compelled by the building inspector of Philadelphia to tear down the entire structure, and has lost $50,000.
